

Raha presents:
" Can You See Me?"

Providing Mental Health Services to Iranian American Clients

Date: Saturday, October 22, 2016 Time: 2pm – 6:30 pm

Location: 7950 Dublin Blvd, Suite 307, Dublin, CA 94568

Cost: $50 Early Bird: $45 September 30

4 CEUs Provided

By:

Jila Behnad, Marriage and Family Therapist

Mahnaz Motayar, PhD psychologist

Parastoo Mossadeghi, M.A. Registered Psychological Assistant

Objectives:

- Who are Iranians? (Cultural diversity/dialects/religions)
- Some of Past and Present research on mental health of Iranian immigrants.
- Trauma of Immigration and loss
- Harmonizing challenges caused by Intergenerational values and needs.
- Cultural expectations of Therapy, Iranian therapists and non-Iranian therapists.
- How to feel the gap between wants, needs and expectations of Iranian clients.

Teaching method and modalities:

The workshop will benefit from didactic teaching as well as high quality, interactive and experimental work.

Who will benefit most from this course:

Mental health professionals who work with Middle Eastern clients.

Course meets the qualifications for 4 hours of continuing education credit for LMFTs, LCSWs, LPCCs, and/or LEPs as required by the California Board of Behavioral Sciences. CEU certificates will be awarded by mail upon full completion of course. Participants must sign in and out in order to receive their certificate. Raha is an approved CEU provider. Provider # 132334

Please note: Advanced registration required. We are not able to provide refunds within 7 days of course date. Full refund will be provided in case of cancellation. If you are not satisfied with this course, please submit your grievance in writing to Contact@Rahaa.info If you require any special accommodations, please contact Jila Behnad at Contact@Rahaa.info Raha is in compliance with local, state and federal regulations including the American's with Disabilities Act of 1990.